First Reading: Servant of the Lord

Isaiah 49:3, 5-6

The Lord said to me, 'You are my servant, Israel, in whom I will be glorified.' And now the Lord says, he who formed me from the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob back to him, and that Israel might be gathered to him — for I am honoured in the eyes of the Lord, and my God has become my strength — he says: 'It is too light a thing that you should be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob and to bring back the preserved of Israel; I will make you as a light for the nations, that my salvation may reach to the end of the earth.'

Response to the Psalm: Behold, I have come, Lord, to do your will.

Second Reading: The Beginning of First Corinthians

1 Corinthians 1:1-3

Paul, called by the will of God to be an Apostle of Christ Jesus, and our brother Sosthenes, To the church of God that is in Corinth, to those sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints together with all those who in every place call upon the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, both their Lord and ours: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia. The Word became flesh and dwelt among us; to all who did receive him, he gave the authority to become children of God. Alleluia.

The Gospel: The Lamb of God

John 1:29-34

At that time: John saw Jesus coming towards him, and said, 'Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world! This is he of whom I said, "After me comes a man who ranks before me, because he was before me." I myself did not know him, but for this purpose I came baptising with water, that he might be revealed to Israel.' And John bore witness: 'I saw the Spirit descend from heaven like a dove, and it remained on him. I myself did not know him, but he who sent me to baptise with water said to me, "He on whom you see the Spirit descend and remain, this is he who baptises with the Holy Spirit." And I have seen and have borne witness that this is the Son of God.'

Last week saw the end of the Christmas season in the Church's calendar. Taking down the Christmas decorations at home, always gives me time for reflection. Firstly, wondering where did time go over the Christmas period! More importantly, it gives me time to think about family and friends, the time spent with them, those missing from our festivities and the messages received in Christmas cards from others. I always re-read both the printed message and the personal message written in the cards before I send them off for recycling. Many printed messages wish me a "Merry Christmas", always a lovely sentiment, but only a few wish me "Peace and Joy this Christmas", surely the sentiment that, as Christians, we all desire, and not just for Christmas, but for life and eternity!

What is peace though? We all long for world peace and pray for this, but have any of us truly experienced world peace? Peace, to many, means absence of war and conflict. Throughout my life, there has always been war or conflict in some area of the world. We are all aware of the situation in Ukraine now, but there are many "forgotten" wars and conflicts occurring now.

Is peace safety from harm or violence? Most of us experience this peace but there are still too many who are violated, live in poverty, are abused, trafficked, exploited, or harmed in their own homes, communities, or countries.

Peace could also be understanding, celebrating and learning from differences, living together in harmony both within our own families and also the community. However, we are aware of crimes of hate, racial injustice, intolerance of others and families torn apart.

There are many things in this world that we cannot change, such as world war, but we can change how we treat others by what we do and say. As Gandhi stated,

"Your beliefs become your thoughts, Your thoughts become your words, Your words become your actions, Your actions become your habits, Your habits become your values, Your values become your destiny."

Sometimes however, we find it difficult to free ourselves from feelings such as jealousy, greed, pride and other emotions where love is "blanked out". In doing so we become blinded to our God given gift of Peace, peace within.

Today, let us pray for World Peace, but we also pray that God will help us all find the Peace within us that was freely given to each and everyone through the sacrifice of Jesus. We have all just witnessed and celebrated, through the scriptures, the birth of Jesus, the Prince of Peace, and his baptism marking the beginning of his teaching. As his disciples through our own baptism, we are called upon to be Christ like and continue God's work on earth. Spreading God's Word and speaking out against injustice.

When we find God's Peace not only are we at peace, but we are able to spread God's Peace and help others find it too. So, when we pray for peace perhaps, not only should we pray for world peace but perhaps also pray that we can be instruments of God's Peace. As Gandhi suggests,

"Be the change that you wish to see in the world." And may the peace of Christ reign in your hearts because it is for this that you were called together in one body. Always be thankful. Colossians 3:15

Celebration of Marriage & Family Life 2026 - Bishop Stephen has kindly agreed to preside at the annual Celebration of Marriage and Family Life Mass in the Cathedral on Saturday 14 February 2026 at 12:00 noon. This open invitation will focus on couples celebrating significant anniversaries in 2026; we are sure there will be couples celebrating 25 or 50 or 60+ years anniversaries but is open also to engaged couples preparing for marriage, those who have been married since our last Mass in 2025 and all married couples. We include those widowed and bereaved during this time and all who were unable, perhaps, to visit wives and husbands in hospital and homes prior to their deaths. In these unprecedented times, we remember couples in crisis and individual adults and children experiencing difficulties and abuse in their family relationships. We wish all to know that no-one is forgotten and that the Sacramental life, despite the pressures of contemporary life and their experiences throughout the past year, is very much alive and prayed for. Anyone celebrating a special anniversary can request a certificate by completing a form with their details: <https://bit.ly/MarriageMass2026> or scan the QR code using a smartphone camera; this will take you directly to the form or contact marriage@diocesehn.org.uk or ring 0191 243 3316. Such certificates will be presented to couples by Bishop Stephen within our Mass.
